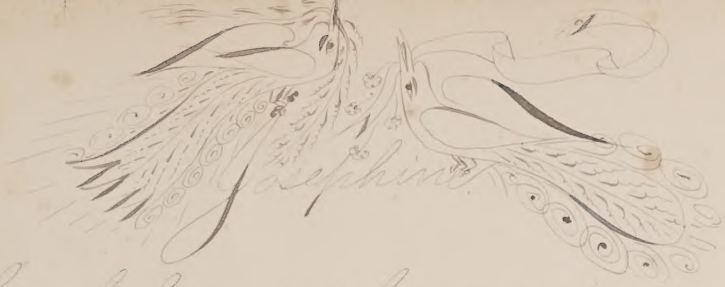
GOLDEN FLORA
ALBUM

Josephine Lemenwee

The
Golden Floral
Album

Be always cheerfull, or as much so as possible, never look on the dark side of life, for there are two sides, one a bright one. Hoping you may grow up to womanhood the pride of your parents, brothers & of your mother & am

C. Leinenweber.



Josephine.

Be cheerful and pleasant in youth.
And a happy old age it yours.
Although sorrow may come too,
The celestial felicity will be sure.

To My Friend

When the golden sun is setting
And from care your mind is free
When of absent friends you are thinking
Will you sometimes think of me

Miss Ida Bell Adair Oregon

To my School mate

Oh do not think though far away"
Thou art forgot by me
Oh no believe there's not a day
But I remember thee".

Mary A Scott

Astoria January 18. 1882.

That your path may be covered with flowers,
Of the richest and purest attire.
And that you may spend many bright hours,
Is my earnest and hopeful desire.

Robert Bell.

Astoria. Nov. 29, 1882.

To Josephine

This Album is a gift to thee. Sacred to love and memory;
let every line or picture be the pure bright gems of constancy.
Let every page a moral be the emblems of humility

To Josie

Oh smooth be thy path
And unclouded thy sky
And joy and prosperity
Ever be nigh.
May hope go before thee
And love walk beside
And peace hover O're thee
Whatsere may betide.

In the Album of life with an angels hand
May your name, be ever writ
And the loved ones of earth may you meet again
On the beautiful shores of heaven.

Be [illegible] gentle,
For those that wield.
For kindness is better
And dearer than gold.

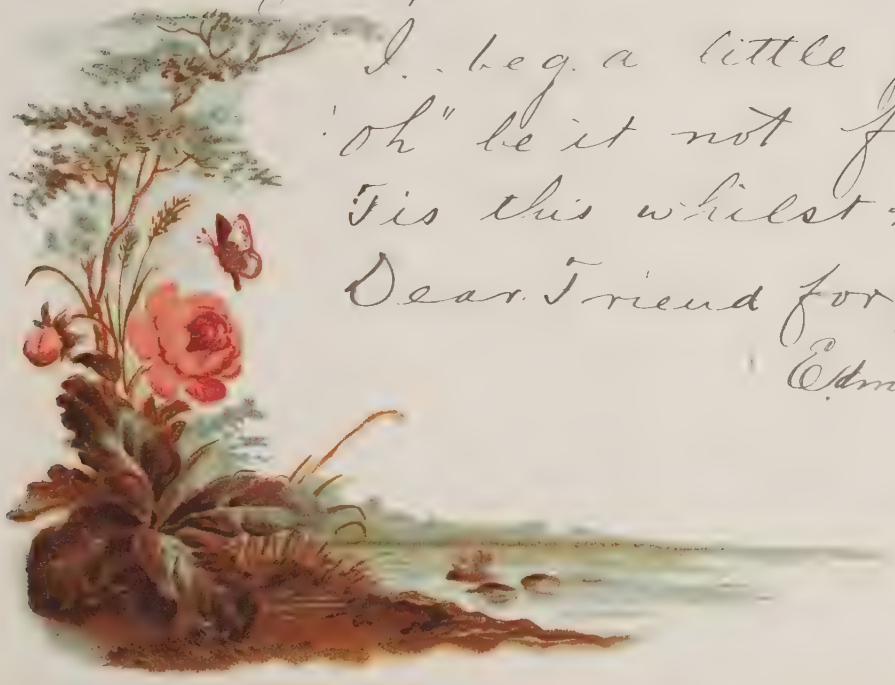
To Josephine



I beg a little favor
"Oh" be it not forgot
Tis this whilst memory reigneth
Dear Friend forget me not

"Is my that our life is blotting
Like a story that hath been told;
And as long that we are only
As just what we are of old."

To Josie;

"Full many a gem of purest
ray serene,
The dark unfathomed caves of Ocean bear;
Full many a flower, is born to blush unseen
And waste its sweetness on the desert air."

If ever I can when I recall,
The days of Measures past
And mingle [illegible] and all,
With fleeting time so fast,
Then shall remember thee, and near
Thy kindly heart come to cheer,
And gentle claims from childhood dear
Or keep due thought for me.

Hope

Softly through this vale of trouble,
May thy life "Dear Friend"
gently glide;
And may angles sweetly glide you
To that home "Dear Friend" beyond the tide.

Remember me

Victoria Nov 17th 1856

In remembrance of the Good
Will to men our Lord
In remembrance of the Sun
Wafer a mortal nature shine
The Resurrection of our Love
Bind it, & it unbind our love
The Remembrance of the vine
& the grateful Lip Take Drink
